Drop in Care is defined as using a maximum of 4 days per month with the agency. Payment is made privately to the educator. If attending more than one dayhome, care cannot exceed 4 days total per month between the dayhomes.

Back up Care is defined as using 10 days or less in another dayhome with our agency. If you will not be attending back up care the following day, you must contact the dayhome educator or agency by 9pm the night before, otherwise you will still be charged for the full day. During business hours, please call 780-444-2288. We have an emergency line for after hours: 780-444-3151.

Ensure the Infant Care Incentive form is also filled out and submitted to your consultant for children 0-18 months attending drop in care. For back up care, the incentive is shared between the primary educator and the backup educator.
